

Film in the Colony draft 5 June

Wednesday 12 July

5.00 Screening: In the Land of the Headhunters (Edward Curtis, Canada, 1914, introduction Aaron Glass)

7.00 Screening: Jedda (Charles Chauvel, Australia, 1955, introduction National Film and Sound Archive, Australia)

Thursday 13 July

9.00 Opening and mihi whakatau

9.30 Opening keynote:

Ian Rijdsdijk (Cape Town), 'Colonial cinema and decolonisation'

10.30 Morning tea

11.00 Early Film

Minette Hillyer (VUW), 'Greetings to our distant kinsmen!': 'Paramount's Red Indians' come to Aotearoa

Mark Derby, 'Knocking the other natives sideways': Māori agency in New Zealand's first feature films

12.00 Screening: Gaston Melies and his Wandering Star Film Company (Raphael Millet, France, 2015)

1.00 Lunch

2.00 Native Portraits (Lisa Reihana, New Zealand, 1997; updated 2017). Screening thanks to special permission of the artist; introduction TBC.

3.00 Afternoon Tea

3.30 The Te Kooti Trail:

Jani T Wilson (AUT), The Hāhi Ringatū and The Te Kooti Trail: Then and Now
Brendan Sheridan (Waikato), Traitors or Patriots? Allied Māori in Land Wars
Films

Annabel Cooper (Otago), Imagined Community in the Performances of The Te Kooti Trail

5.00 Drinks

5.30 Screening: The Te Kooti Trail (Rudall Hayward, 1927). Introduction Ngā Taonga

7.00 Dinner at Siem Reap

7.00 Screening: Gaston Melies and his Wandering Star Film Company (Raphael Millet, France, 2015)

Friday 14 July

9.00 Panel Discussion and Early Films: Whānau, Film and Archives

Speakers: Lawrence Wharerau, Natalie Robertson [and other speakers TBC]

Screenings: James Macdonald films

10.30 Morning Tea

11.00 Sound

Melissa Cross (Wellington), 'Song of the Locust' and Rewi's Last Stand

Benedict Palmer and Allison Craven (James Cook), Screening Native Voices in Charles Chauvel's Uncivilised

Aleisha Ward (Lilburn Research Fellow), 'Saxophones Sobbed Out Jazz': New Zealand's first jazz recording and early film shorts

12.30 Lunch

1.30 Len Lye

Alex Porter (Ngā Taonga), Lye's Waka into Celluloid: Tusalava (1929)

Screening: Lye

2.15 Trade Films, Australia and New Zealand

Felicity Barnes (Auckland), Britain's Farms: trade films and the construction of 'white dominions', 1926-1939

Screenings: trade films

3.00 Afternoon tea

3.30 Closing keynote: Litheko Modisane (Cape Town), 'When Decoloniality goes to the Movies or Ken Gampu as Decolonial Problematic'

4.30 Wrap-up discussion

5.00 Drinks

5.30 Screening: Dingaka (Jamie Uys, South Africa, 1964)

7.30 Screening: Rewi's Last Stand (Rudall Hayward, New Zealand, 1940)

Saturday 15 July

4.30 Screening: In the Land of the Headhunters (introduction Aaron Glass)

7.00 Dingaka (Jamie Uys, South Africa, 1964)